

Preachers and Thieves

4th=109

INTRO: B | B | B | G D-C#-C#-B |

VERSE 1

B B B
Janie's a addict but she feeds her family
(G D) B
Hank owns a bank but his kids are on the street
B B
Janie's got a good grip on desperation
(G D) G (G D-C#-C#-B)
Hank's getting fat but he doesn't see his need

CHORUS

C# A E
As I'm standing here on this stage
B C#
Hanging from the cross that I have made
A E
What you see is probably deceit
B A9
Only God knows the difference
A B(intro)
The difference between preachers and thieves

VERSE 2

B B B
Rosa's the lady in apartment fifteen
(G D) B
No one knows her name or what language she speaks
B
Or that her son is dying alone behind those walls
(G D) G (G D-C#-C#-B)
Separating their home from the apartments she cleans

CHORUS

F#m E F#m E/G#

BRIDGE

A A EM9 EM9
Struggling to stand, fighting to breathe
A A D A/C#
One cries to His left, one dies to His right
A A EM9 EM9
One takes his last breath embracing his mockery
(A/E F#m7)(G A) (Bm7 E/B) D/F#
While the other opens his eyes in paradise

A A B B B (G D-C#-C#-B)

2/4

(C#-B-B-A)

CHORUS

B B B (G D) (G D-C#-C#-B) (B B) B

Written by Todd Agnew
©2007 Ardent/Koala Music (ASCAP). All Rights Reserved.